The leaders on either side hurled themselves with forensic fervor against the opposition, party Unca being obscured in many instances. enators of various views rushed into he chamber to advise their delega-ions, colleagues divided and "whips" struggled desperately, but in the end history repeated itself and the final vote was announced amid the uproar-tous cellght of the majority.

Motion to Recommit Defeated. At one time a change of three votes would have sent the bill back to conference. On the motion to recommit the vote was 186 to 191, and when it was announced the speaker and his lieutenants redoubled their efforts to obtain a comfortable majority on the final test. It was the thorough know-ledge of the rules and the parliamen-lary strategy of Representative Payne that most contributed to the victory. When the debate had been exhausted and the hour for voting arrived. Representatives Mann and Fitzgerald planstructions. They were forestalled, how-ever, by the chairman of the ways and means committee, who was recognized by the speaker and immediately moved to recommit the bill and demanded the previous question. The republicans, under his guidance, voted for this motion, while the democrats opposed it. When it had carried and the vote came on the motion to recommit the report the republicans shifted and voted "no." It was on this vote that the combined position forces made their strongest fight and came within six votes of vic tained an opportunity to move to recommit the bill he would probably have

Paterson Bartender Refused to Serv Him Liquor-Two Men Killed.

Paterson, N. J., Aug. 1.—A blind negro, angered by the bartender's refusal to serve him more liquor, pulled out two revolvers yesterday and emptied them in a crowded saloon, killing two men and seriously wounding a third. William F. Sasson is the man under arrest on two charges of murder.

In spite of Sasson's blindness the police say he is the terror of the shore district, where he is known as "The Devil." Early yesterday, they say, he entered Henry Regemass' saloon accompanied by two other negroes. All had been drinking heavily and when they ordered more the bartender told them they had had enough. Sasson, witnesses say, shouted "We'll see if we can have drinks or not," then backed the place was cleared. Robert Fergu-son, one of the men who entered with Sasson, died fifteen minutes later with a ball in his side. Charles Hummel, white, died at the hospital from a shot in the abdomen. Joseph Geiger, also white, had his jaw and his right arm shattered and is now in a critical condition. Susson fied, but was captured.
